The City Manager is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the City, its 19 offices and departments, and a $3.0 billion budget. This is an important opportunity for residents to influence the City's selection of its new City Manager. Citizens unable to attend the meetings can participate in an online community survey by going to www.sanjoseca.gov. Suggestions can be emailed to emiddleton@alliancerc.com, or mailed to 200 East Santa Clara, 2nd Floor Wing, San Jose, CA 95133 c/o Arlene Gibbs. Comments received by January 26, 2007 will be used to help develop the initial criteria for the selection process.

To arrange an accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act to participate in this public meeting, please call (408) 535-1260 or (408) 294-9337 (TTY) at least 48 hours before the event. Information available in alternative formats such as Braille, large print, audio, and computer disk.
